SAGEBRUSH REBEL

Stay Strong Revolutionary!

*We, who can still hear the jaguar scream.
We dream of a day when all things wild will again be free.
We long for a time when every species
will be loved and honored equally.
It is a dream we may never see fulfilled.
But in answer to our own wild hearts.
It is a dream we will fight for until the day we die.*

This is the first of a series of simple guides.

Can you hear the cries of our EARTH MOTHER every time another sacred site is destroyed?

Is your heart breaking when you see forests being leveled, strip mines ripping open the land, factories polluting the water and air, entire species of plants and animals being disappeared forever?

Are you tired of the RADICAL CAPITALISTS wanting nothing but more and more, and destroying everything in their quest to get it?

Do you hear the muffled screams of CHILDREN and feel the agony of our sisters being violated and physically ABUSED by their own relatives?

Is your heart RAGING at the loss of yet another brother or sister to alcohol or another grandmother or grandfather to CANCER?

We are being POISONED by people who profit from our weakness. If the people are sick and drugged and divided against each other, then the Invaders job is easy.

Are you tired of being told, "that is just the way it is?"

Well it doesn't have to be!!!!

The time for ACTION is NOW!

There are many things we can do to bring about change, but we must be responsible to the voice that speaks to us. The voice is not our own it comes from an open heart, it flows through us.

There is no room for ego, be respectful, be smart and act with strategy.

There are few basic understandings that we all need to have.

The Roman Empire has never fallen, it only stumbled (it has never been stronger). The conquest began in Europe. The tribes of Europe were the first to be subjugated by the Roman Empire, this provided the tax base that they needed for the Conquest of the WORLD. They then went to Africa, Asia, America, and Australia (we are all in this together, united we can't be defeated). The basic mission of the conquest is to destroy cultures, societies and control all land.

They were able to spread their purpose quickly by using a simple divide and conquer strategy. They pit people against themselves. They used Africans to capture Africans, Indians to capture Indians, and it was the same in Europe. The people were used to subjugate themselves. They were given power and class status for the exchange of their tax. They had to give up their cultures and their religions.

This practice is still in use today. We watch it on the television, we listen to it in the speeches. We must resist.

We must not keep ourselves apart, we must come together and form communities. The words of peace must be heard again. It may take a battle to get back our cultures, but it must be waged.

Ideas for change:

- do not pay taxes,
- do steal from the government and industry,
- do not watch network television,
- do listen to your heart,
- do not vote,
- do teach the children,
- do not hurt your brothers and sisters,
- do respect your family and friends,
- do cut all fences,
- do destroy capitalism,
- do engage in educating yourself then take ACTION!

BEWARE

Armed bands are roaming the highways and marching through your neighborhood. They may even try to enter your home! Watch for these gang identifiers:

Vehicles: Sport cars, four-door sedans, and vans, often painted black and white, with sirens and flashing red and blue lights.

Clothing: Well kept dress uniforms, usually blue or black (gang colors), and adorned with patches and badges. Head-wear varies. Other accessories include gun belts, handcuffs, hand-held radios, and large flashlights.

Armaments: Handguns, shotguns, assault rifles, tear-gas rifles, billy clubs, shields, bullet-proof armor, helmets, and face-shields.

Demeanor: Surly and hostile or aggressively friendly.

These gangs are highly organized, well armed, and potentially violent. Warn your friends and neighbors.

Do Not Provoke Them!
Do Not Let Them Corner You!
Protect Yourself

TYPICAL GANG MEMBER

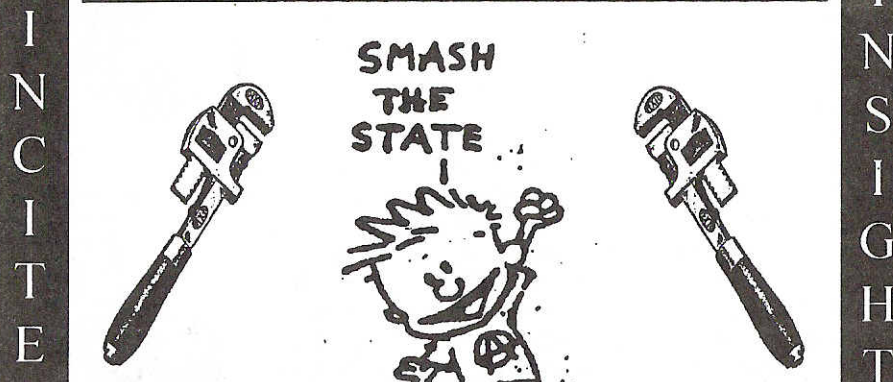

I'm not a liar and I'm not full of hatred, but I hate lies. So, the liars hate me. The same who can't stand the sight of a starving baby. Can you really say your not in pain, like me? Are any of us not living painfully? Pain is what their lies have kept us in. But the war has started now and truth will win. Many of us are going to lose our lives and that's o.k., because to live we have to die. The enemies of God will say it is chaos. Just remember what Jesus did in the temple and be patient.

Exactly why do you think he was assassinated? Who was it that did the dirty deed? Who didn't like the answers they had received? Look at the one wearing the collar, then or now. There has only been on liar, and that's the Holly Roman Empire. And this is exactly what they did. They told us lies to take us away from God. So, ya I am angry, but I'm not full of hate, I'm full of love. God said, "I bring not peace, I bring a sword."

-Sinéad O'Connor

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

When in the Course of Human Events a person finds him/herself to be from birth Bound and Subject to a Nation-State which has failed to abide by the Law of its own Constitution; and in addition finds oneself through State Regulation to be Unnaturally Restrained and Prohibited by Statute and Ordinance; Forcibly Taxed and made to pay for Brutal and Inhuman Acts; and Held Liable for Crimes against the State which are not Criminal by Nature; it becomes necessary by reasons of Natural Right for that person to Break All Ties with that Nation/State to which Allegiance had previously been sworn, and Assume among the Sovereign Powers of the World the Imminent Right of Self-rule and Personal Evolution.

Decent and Common Respect for the World demands of that Personal Sovereignty that they produce for the World a Statement of Personal Creed or Constitution by which that person shall Live and be Held Accountable. And so I do hereby Declare the Universal Rights and Responsibilities to which I hold myself Accountable.

- the Right to Live;
- the Right to Privacy;

- the Right to Form Common Bonds with Individuals and Groups;
- the Right to Travel Unhindered and to Choose an Appropriate Place of Dwelling;
- the Right to Die;
- the Right to Speak Freely;
- the Right to Religious Freedom;
- the Right of Equal Access to Clean Air and Pure Water;
- the Right to do Honorable Work and receive Goods or Credits Equal to the Goods or Services provided;
- the Right to Claim this Sovereignty for One's Own Children;

All Beings are Equally Endowed by Creation with the Natural Rights of Self Rule and Personal Evolution including:

Respect is a Universal Responsibility, and so the Sovereign Rights of no Individual or Collective or State shall be construed or applied so as to deny or infringe upon the Natural and Universal Rights of another Individual. All Human Beings so Endowed by Creation are also Bound by Creation to be Responsible for:

- Maintaining a Position of Non-Aggression Applying the Principles of Non-Violence;
- Pursuing Reconciliation;
- Upholding Truth;
- Caring for the Well Being of the People and the Planet;
- Pursuing and Applying Equal Justice for All;

And so I, _____, being also known by the name

_____, having Stated the Reasons for the Separation and having Declared to the People and other Sovereign Powers of the World the Constitution by which I shall Conduct myself, Rule myself, and be Judged by All, do here by freely and willfully Declare myself to be a Free and Sovereign Being; and I, in the Judgment of the Most High, do hereby Disavow and Dissolve all Contracts, Agreements, Obligations and Treaties, either Written or Implied, with the United States Federal Government and each of the individual State-Governments, Districts, Municipalities and Colonies therein.

A runaway bulldozer cut a half-mile-long path of destruction through a Buffalo suburb, narrowly missing a crowded video store before crunching 16 new and used cars at an auto dealership.

No one was hurt in the incident, which began shortly before 5 pm, October 15 after construction workers left a near by demolition site. Someone started up a Caterpillar bulldozer being used to demolish a mall and drove it for a short while before jumping off, police said.

The machine rumbled over a set of railroad tracks, just missed two sets of power lines and passed within 15 feet of a Blockbuster Video Store. Customers who saw the machine go by said, the bulldozer disappeared in some underbrush, reappeared climbing a hill, and headed toward Ron Corbo's Oldsmobile-Subaru dealership.

It first ripped into a leased Subaru just returned that day. The bulldozer's front-end scoop then pushed another car up and onto the top of a Honda which had been taken in on trade three hours before.

The bulldozer then moved down a line of autos, climbing the cars and crunching them flat or ripping off their back ends. Among the casualties were two Subarus bought by a father and his son one hour before the accident and fully-loaded Oldsmobile 98, which arrived from the factory a few hours earlier and was flattened into a three-foot-high metal pancake. The sticker price: $32,000.

The machine then plowed a $28,000 Oldsmobile into the wall of Corbo's service garage, its treads gouging a three-foot trench in the lot before someone jumped up onto the bulldozer and shut off the ignition.

"What a mess," said Corbo, who left the lot just a few minutes before the bulldozer showed up. "There's a half-a-million dollars worth of cars right there."

No arrests had been made, but police said the culprit probably had a working knowledge of bulldozers.

"Just to get it started and get it moving requires four or five steps, and then you have to control the bucket," explained West Seneca Lt. Dale Wighthe. "It seems to me it takes a little more ability than some juvenile."

As extensive as the damage was, Corbo said it could have been worse.

"Another two feet to the left," he said. "and it would have gone right through this garage door, wiped out this car on the left and gone right out the other side."

Beware...

Sabotage!

There are many understandings of what is considered to be violence. If we begin to ask ourselves if the destruction of inanimate objects is violence, we should also ask a couple of other questions to help obtain the context for our answer. For example, if a person steals money is it violent? If the money stolen is from a savings and loan and it happens to be the only money a family had to feed their children, and the children are now hungry, would it be considered violent? The children have definitely suffered, yet none of the bankers in the savings and loan scandals where ever charged with a violent crime. But someone who destroys property is always charged with a violent crime, even when no person has been hurt or even threatened. Is this a double standard? Indeed it is. A demolition team is not charged with a violent crime if they destroy a building, yet it is considered violent if someone destroys a building without permission. How can an act that does not threaten or destroy life be considered violent in one instance and not another? The answer is obvious - economics. If economics are destroyed at the same time property is destroyed the judicial system considers it to be a violent act. There is the paradox. A bulldozer can destroy and most people think nothing of it, but if you destroy a bulldozer it is considered violent and subversive.

Vandalism: a senseless act of destruction which serves no real purpose.

Sabotage: a strategic act of destruction, which serves to further a larger goal.

Sabatoge is very effective way to slow the destruction of our communities and the environment. Vandalism is not the answer. We must educate ourselves about the institutions that destroy our cultures and our environment, and act in an educated and united manner... jails are no place for change. You must remain free to be effective. Think before you act.
